The third and final races in the 2017 FTBOA Florida Sire Stakes will be run Saturday at Gulfstream Park.

Those races are the In Reality for males and the My Dear Girl for fillies. Both have $400,000 purses and are 1-1/16 miles on dirt. They are restricted to Florida-bred 2-year-olds that meet other eligibility requirements.

Soutache will undoubtedly be the big favorite in the In Reality.

On Sept. 2, he set a stakes record in winning the seven-furlong Affirmed Stakes—the series second race in the male division.

Soutache won that dirt stakes in 1:22.46. He finished a half-length ahead of World of Trouble.

With World of Trouble on the inside, the two colts battled head-to-head for the lead during the entire stretch run.

World of Trouble briefly bumped the rail with his back-left leg about 220 yards from the finish.

He quickly regained momentum. Trainer Kathleen O'Connell, not one to make excuses, said she thinks World of Trouble would have won the race if not for bumping the rail.

World of Trouble is not running in the In Reality. O'Connell said the horse is healthy, but that owner Michael Dubb is giving him a break from racing.

Tyler Gaffalione, who rode World of Trouble in the Affirmed, will be on board Soutache in the In Reality.

Eric Cancel rode Soutache in the Affirmed. He does not have a mount in the In Reality. Soutache is a son of Backtalk. He is trained by Ralph Nicks for owner GoldMark Farm.

Soutache has won two of his three starts. He won his debut, on July 2, at five furlongs on dirt at Gulfstream.

On Aug. 5, Soutache finished third in the $100,000 Dr. Fager. That six furlong race at Gulfstream was the first leg in the Sire Stakes.

Phantom Ro, owned by Raroma Stable and trained by Nicks, won the Dr. Fager.

In the Affirmed, Phantom Ro broke through the starting gate and was reloaded. He finished third, 6  $\frac{3}{4}$  lengths behind Soutache.

Phantom Ro is not in the In Reality field of six horses. His Name is Sue, trained by O'Connell, and Tip Sheet, trained by Stan Gold, likely will set the early pace with Soutache in the second flight.

My Dear Girl – Race 13; Scheduled Post 6:03 p.m.

The My Dear Girl has ten entrants, with no clear favorite. Among contenders are Starship Bonita, Dessert Honeys, Go Astray and Awesome Mass.

The series began Aug. 5 with the \$100,000 Desert Vixen at six furlongs. Go Astray, at 10-1, got loose on the lead and beat the 7-10 favorite Awesome Mass by 4  $\frac{1}{2}$  lengths.

On Sept. 2, 15-1 shot Starship Bonita, held off a late charge by Dessert Honeys and won by a head in the $200,000 Susan's Girl at seven furlongs.

Go Astray finished third, two lengths behind the top pair. Awesome Mass came in fourth by another two lengths.

Race Schedule

The Sire Stakes races are the co-features on a 14-race card that has a first post of 12:00 p.m.

The My Dear Girl is the 13th race with scheduled post of 6:03 p.m. The In Reality is the second race with a scheduled post of 12:30 p.m.

The Series

The Sire Stakes races are open to Florida-breds that are sons or daughters of Florida-registered stallions. For a horse to be eligible to run, its owner must pay a series of sustaining nomination fees and the owner of its sire must pay a series of fees.

The Ocala-based Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association (FTBOA) administers the series.

Purse money comes from a combination of funding from the Florida TBOA and from Gulfstream and the Florida Horsemen's Benevolent & Protective Association.

HorseRacingFLA 2017 Guide to the Florida Sire Stakes

Cover Photos

Cajun Delta Dawn (2) is shown beating Lu Lu Laura (1) by a neck in last year's six-furlong Desert Vixen. Cajun Delta Dawn later won the seven-furlong Susan's Girl. But she finished fourth among 13 runners in the series finale—the 1 1/16 mile My Dear Girl.

That indicates how difficult it can be for a horse to sweep in the Sire Stakes, especially considering the added distance in the third race.

Awesome Feather and Big Drama are examples of horses that swept their Sire Stakes races and went on to national stardom.

Awesome Feather

Awesome Feather is shown winning the 2010 My Dear Girl at Calder Race Course to complete a sweep of the filly's division. (Through 2013 the series was held at Calder Race Course and was known as the Florida Stallion Stakes).

After winning the My Dear Girl, Awesome Feather won the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (Grade 1) at Churchill Downs in Louisville, Kentucky. She later was voted the 2010 winner of the Eclipse Award for Juvenile Fillies.

Fred & Jane Brei,
Owners of Jacks or Better Farm

was owned by Jacks or Better Farm and trained

In 2010, Big Drama won the Breeders' Cup Sprint (grade 1) at Churchill Downs and later was voted winner of the Eclipse Award for Sprinters.

About HorseRacingFLA.com

Your Inside Track to Florida Horse Racing

Daily Online News, Analysis, and Commentary

HorseRacingFLA.com, the only independent website dedicated exclusively to thoroughbred racing in Florida, is fast becoming one of the top online sources for Florida horse racing news and commentary at Gulfstream Park, Gulfstream Park West (Calder) and Tampa Bay Downs.

Jim Freer

Since 2015, HRFLA creators Jim Freer, editor and nationally recognized racing writer, and Barry Unterbrink, business manager and financial expert, have provided the horse racing community with a unique, knowledgeable blend of engaging media, racing history, and invaluable insights into “the inside track on Florida horse racing.”

States Freer: “Both Barry and I have always had a passion for horse racing. After my years of reporting on racing for the Miami Herald, Blood-Horse and other top news outlets, and with Barry’s extensive business background, we discovered a growing need for immediate, full-scope, Florida-based coverage. HorseRacingFLA.com fills that need. We promote a greater knowledge and understanding of this important industry. We’re a daily ‘boots on the ground’ publication. That’s exciting and challenging!”

HorseRacingFLA.com’s coverage includes race previews, recaps, handicapping, feature stories, archives, and expert business analysis. Freer’s audience continues to grow with ongoing radio interviews and podcasts on ESPN. Bob Bauer, HRFLA’s Tampa Bay Downs correspondent, and linked guest writers such as highly respected J.J. Graci, also contribute on a regular basis.

Due to the increasing market demand for its free subscriber-based website news, HorseRacingFLA now produces the “HorseRacingFLA 2017 Florida Sire Stakes Series Guide,” an information-packed web publication, available to subscribers only.

Says Unterbrink: “By continuing to expand our coverage, and with publishing the 2017 Guide, we hope that our subscribers can improve their odds, make some winning bets, and enjoy the multi-faceted wonders of Florida horse racing at its best.”
